

THE PERRIS STUDENT PROGRAM (PSP)

Our program is unlike any other student program. We incorporate indoor skydiving utilizing our on-site wind tunnel. The wind tunnel is an invaluable learning tool that allows you to improve body flight and practice what you need to pass your proceeding levels without the pressure of jumping out of a plane. One minute of tunnel time equates to the freefall experience of one skydive, and our student program includes 20 minutes of tunnel time! Our single-instructor progression includes more than twice the jumps with a certified AFF instructor than the traditional AFF program. This means more coaching and experience throughout your progression. Our progression also strongly emphasizes canopy drills and progression starting from PSP Level 1. Being able to fly your canopy with confidence and do so safely is of utmost importance. Our main objective is to produce highquality, well-rounded students, and our PSP program is uniquely designed to do just that.

In general, we advise our students to plan on spending a total of $5,500 to $6,000 and at least two weeks with us to obtain their USPA A-license. This time frame accounts for being here all day, every day. You do not need to complete the program in this time frame, and you can spread your jumps out over a longer period. However, you will need to jump at least once every 30 days to stay current and avoid additional fees.

These numbers provided are a safe average, but please understand that students progress through the program at different rates, and we cannot guarantee that you will complete the student program in this time frame or this price range. Weather, instructor availability, personal stamina, and personal progression are a few of the factors that influence the total time it will take to obtain your A-license. Repeat levels, additional tunnel time, and total necessary daily gear rentals are a few of the factors that will influence the overall cost of the program.

Below is a brief description of what you would learn on each PSP level and the price per level:

PSP LEVEL 1
